www.ardf2018.kr

To all IARU Societies

Dear ARDF friends,

The Korean Amateur Radio League (KARL) has the pleasure of releasing Bulletin 3 of the 19th IARU WORLD ARDF Championships. All events will be held during September 2018. As of today, we have received the Letters of Intent from 25 countries adding up to 418 participants for the event. We are excited by the huge numbers that exceed our most generous expectation and we promise you that we will do our best to make the Championships the most successful one ever in the region.

We would like to cordially invite all ARDF societies to spend a week happily and have a pleasant journey.

See you in September 2018!

3. Transportation to the Venue

Please see the bulletin No.2.

As a courtesy of our sponsor, you can use free pick-up services by bus on the 2nd and 8th of Sep. Participants arriving thru Seoul/Inchon and Kimpo Airport will be guided by KARL members and will move to Sokcho city by bus. Transport schedule will be decided according to your itinerary.

Arrival Notice

We are requesting that Team Leaders advise the Organizing Committee of their team's traveling schedule so that OC can arrange the "pick-up" schedule.

Please let us know your plans 2 weeks in advance.

4. Accommodation and food

We have already announced accommodation arrangement in the bulletin No.2.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner are provided as buffet style and sack lunch packets are provided on the classics and Foxoring course days.

5. ID badges

Plain badges without photos are included for the event. If you would like to include a photo with your ID badge please send a face-forward, clear, personal photo (image size 600x400 over) to ardf2018@hanmail.net no later than the 31 th July.

6. Insurance and Medical care

A First aid facility will be available at the finish areas for all competitors at no cost to the participants. First Aid applies for on-site minor treatment only. However the cost for any ambulance transportation, emergency department visits, and clinic visits will be the participant's responsibility. Thus, we recommend that you purchase travel insurance to cover any extra needed expenses.
